

AVT and Education Course Offerings for the MAT in Art Education: SPRING 2008

Foundations of Art Education

AVT 396:001 10833 (R 8:30 am - 12:10 pm) Fine Arts Building B204 Mary Del Popolo

AVT 396:002 14629 (F 8:30 am - 12:10 pm) Fine Arts Building B204 Kimberly Sheridan

Introduction to Art Teaching and Learning (3:3:0) Prerequisite: Junior standing, completion of ENGL 302 and completion of at least 20 credits of AVT coursework (including AVT 307), or permission of the art education advisor. Prior to enrollment, students must fill out an art education inquiry form and receive approval to enroll from the art education advisor. An exploration of the art teaching profession through readings, discussion, hands-on activities and visits to diverse area public schools. Students will discover a variety of ways that art is taught and evaluated to meet the multiple educational needs of today's PK-12 students.

AVT 494:001 10859 (T 4:30 p.m.-7:10 pm) Fine Arts Building B204 Renee Sandell

Teaching Critical Response to Art, PK-12 (3:3:0) Prerequisite: AVT 396, or permission of the art education advisor. Students develop visual literacy and critical thinking skills for application to the PK-12 classroom by examining diverse theoretical models and applying strategies to expand knowledge about art and artifacts. Course methods include intensive writing, readings, discussions, museum work, research and Internet skills, and studio work.

EDUC 302:001 12235 (W 7:20-10 pm)

EDUC 302:002 12251 (R 4:30 -7:10 pm)

Human Growth and Development (3:3:0). Examines human development through the life span with special emphasis on the cognitive, language, physical, social, and emotional development of children. Emphasizes contemporary theories of human development and their relevance to educational practice. School-based field experience is required during the course.

EDUC 301:001 12218 (W 7:20-10 pm)

EDUC 301:002 12221 (W 7:20-10 pm)

Educationally Diverse Populations: Handicapped, Gifted, Multicultural (3:3:0). Introduces the psychological, sociological, educational, and physical aspects of diverse populations in today's schools for early and middle education. Emphasizes litigation and legislation pertaining to the education of diverse populations. School-based field experience is required during the course.

Graduate Art Education

AVT 615:001 10884 (M 4:30-7:10 pm) Innovation Hall 336 Tamra Ferreira

Technology for Art Teachers (3:3:0) Prerequisite: MAT admission, or permission of instructor. Addresses the uses of technology in the PK-12 art classroom. Focuses on research, presentation/instruction, and image creation. Students develop technology-enhanced teaching units for different grade levels and explore related issues including copyright, plagiarism, and appropriation.

AVT 668:001 10895 (R 4:30 pm-10 pm) Fine Arts Building B100 Brian Kirk

Three-Dimensional Artmaking Across Cultures (4:2:4) Prerequisite: MAT admission, or permission of instructor. Explores the diversity of art forms in world cultures and the work of traditional/contemporary artists. Students learn basic 3D artmaking techniques, including ceramics and fibers, and learn to design 3D art instruction for PK-12 levels.

AVT 692:001 10913 (W 4:30-7:10 pm) Thompson Hall 117 Julia Hoffmann

Secondary Art Education (3:3:1) Prerequisite: AVT 691 or permission of instructor.

Concepts and methods in secondary art education. Students spend three hours per week in class and one hour per week of required field experience in the public schools and other educational settings.

AVT 695:001 10914 (M-F FCPS) TBA Susan Castellana

Internship in Art Education (Student Teaching K-12) (6:0:0) Prerequisite: completion of all other MAT program requirements. Co requisite: AVT 696

AVT 696: 001 10916 (W 4:30 pm-7:10 pm) Thompson Hall 119 Susan Castellana

Internship in Art Education Seminar (1:2:0) Corequisite: AVT 695

If you are interested in applying to the MAT in Art Education Program or in taking any of these courses, go to the MAT in Art Education website arteducation.gmu.edu to submit an Art Education Inquiry Form, then contact Mary Del Popolo mdelpopo@gmu.edu for advising.